NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 14.—(P)—A tornado swept the Tennessee-Kentucky border tonight from the Mississippi river to the Cumberland mountains, killed at least 23 persons, injured more than 200 and did damage estimated conservatively at a million dollars.

Authorities feared the death list would increase as news of the disaster trickled in from rural communities over wrecked communication lines.

Property damage was heavy, especially here—the largest city the twister struck. It hit such important centers as this capital city, Kingsport and Harrogate, Tenn., and Caruthersville, Mo.

Hail storms followed in the wake of the wind. The tornado made a bee line from the Caruthersville (Mo.) section to the Kentucky coal country, across about 200 miles of thickly populated country. It apparently blew itself out in the hills of Tennessee and Kentucky.

In Nashville the twister swept over a fringe of hills and bore down on the city. The eastern part of the city was buffeted and many dwellings were slumped down.

The city was thrown in darkness. Ambulances shrieked through the debris-strewn streets and more than 100 persons were taken to hospitals, where physicians worked frantically by improvised lights.

The historic capital that sits on a hill overlooking the city and Cumberland river was damaged. A legislative committee in session there hurriedly adjourned in darkness.

The wind struck first in northeast

Lea, Son Granted Habeas Corpus Writ

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., March 14.—(P)—Within a few minutes after today, Colonel Luke Lea, Nashville publisher and former United States senator, and his son, Luke Lea Jr., were granted a writ of habeas corpus by County Judge John T. Cunningham, who set the hearing for 10 a. m. Monday.

Judge Cunningham denied application of local counsel for the Leas for bond, saying that angle would be considered next Monday morning.

McNutt Begins Release Of Prohi Prisoners

INDIANAPOLIS, March 14.—(P)—In accordance with the policy enunciated by Governor Paul V. McNutt, seven men were released today from the Indiana reformatory, where they were serving sentences for liquor law violations.

They represented the first group of a total of 325 prisoners who will be freed as a result of the repeal of the Indiana "bone-dry" law.

The Wright act, one of the most stringent dry laws in the country, prohibited the prescribing of whiskey for medicinal purposes and in other respects was much more drastic than the national liquor laws.

The state legislature not only repealed the state liquor law but also passed a bill legalizing the manufacture and sale of beer, to be effective if the congress passes such a measure.

EDUCATION BOARD VOTES TO OPPOSE CHAMBERS SURVEY

Committee Plan Adopted
as Group Hears Harrelson in Heated Attack on The Constitution.

Voting to avoid a survey of Atlanta schools by W. Evans Chambers, city survey expert, by substituting a committee of five from among its own members, the Atlanta board of education Tuesday afternoon heard School Commissioner J. Ira Harrelson level an unrestrained attack on The Atlanta Constitution and Chambers as a climax to an otherwise uninteresting session.

When apprised of the board action, Mayor James L. Key, who has insisted that Chambers conduct a survey and who has advised Dr. Noah W. Baird, board president, that the survey will be made by Chambers with or without the co-operation of the school department, said he would direct Chambers to offer his services to the committee.

The mayor took the position that Chambers would be of inestimable value to the city and that his findings "would help them solve a difficult problem." It thus appeared that Chambers will work with the committee if the majority of the board are so inclined.

Commissioner George W. Powell, a former president of the board, offered a motion to make the survey through the board committee. The motion stipulated that Baird and Alderman W. W. Wait, chairman of the school committee, "in whom the mayor has the utmost confidence," be two of the five members of the

Sturdivant to Probe Liquor Car "Racket"

An investigation into methods used by city detectives, policemen and county officers in seizing automobiles in whicky cases was ordered Tuesday by Chief of Police T. O. Sturdivant. An alleged auto sale "racket" was the attention of the chief following the trial of two youths who were arrested in an automobile in which one pint of liquor was found. The youths, Will Gorman and Arnold Shulley, were given suspended sentences by Recorder John L. Cone.

Later they were rearrested by Detectives Roper and McCarty and Deputy Sheriff Neils, and according to the records, were held in Fulton tower in bond of $100 each. Chief Sturdivant, in ordering the inquiry, said he believed that because officers receive one-third of the selling price of a seized automobile several officers are making a racket of carrying trial whicky cases into the state courts.

More Power for Farm Head Seen Before End of Week

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(P)—Secretary Wallace said today that President Roosevelt has "approved in principle" the plan of farm organization leaders to delegate to Wallace broad emergency power to deal with the farm problem.

Wallace said the first draft of a proposed bill was submitted to the president and that it is now being redrawn to eliminate certain provisions and change others in line with the chief executive's suggestions.

It was reported that the president is preparing a message to congress for submission within a day or two. Wallace said that he "hoped" for action by congress before the end of this week.

The proposal of the farm leaders would give Wallace authority to select one or more of several farm relief methods.

Wallace said that "it looks like the processor's tax will be used" as the method of raising funds for financing the program which may include leasing

RESOLUTION SAYS TALMADGE USED $25,760 ILLEGALLY

Senate Asked To Approve Move To Sue
Bondsmen for Governor
While State Farm Head.

By L. A. FARRELL.

The senate Tuesday was asked to adopt a resolution calling on the state treasurer to sue bondsmen of Governor Eugene Talmadge for $25,760 allegedly illegally spent by the governor while he was serving as commissioner of agriculture.

The resolution, which was presented by Senator James F. Boykin, of Lincoln, is required by senate rules to lie on the table for one day, and therefore will not be acted on until this morning. Senator Boykin, its author, is a brother of Solicitor-General John A. Boykin, of Atlanta.

The resolution says that during the months of June, July, August and September of last year, just prior to his election as governor, Talmadge withdrew from the appropriation to the state veterinary department the $25,760 and used it "for an unlawful and unauthorized purpose."

The resolution sets out that the expenditure of the agriculture department was unreasonably high during the period. The resolution quoted the audit as showing that during the period the expenses of the department of agriculture were $129,831, or $88,838 more than was expended during the other eight months of the year.

The Boykin resolution charges that the office of the veterinarian was appropriated $36,712.50 for 1932 and $17,233 was carried over from 1931. The department actually expended, the resolution asserts, $59,184.68. It was the difference between the appropriated and the actual expenditures, Boykin's resolution says, that he collected.

Another clause in the resolution asserts that C. E. Stewart collected

War Debt Payment By France Foreseen

PARIS, March 14.—(UP)—France is preparing to pay her defaulted December 15 war debt payment to the United States, it was learned authoritatively today.

Agitation for payment of the installment, totaling about $10,000,000, was led by former Premier Edouard Herriot, whose ministry fell last December on this question.

The move for payment at this late date coincided with President Roosevelt's drastic efforts to solidify the dollar on foreign exchange markets and with the tightening of the European political situation.

The United Press understood that the government headed by President Edouard Daladier favors making the payment forthwith, but feels it must first ask parliament's approval.

There was some disposition to believe, however, that the payment could be approved without fresh debate in the chamber of deputies.

Warden Shot Dead By Mystery Killer

FOLKSTON, Ga., March 14.—W. C. White, warden of the Chatham county chain gang, was shot to death at 9 o'clock Tuesday night. The killer stood outside the home of Warden White and fired through the door, the shot producing instant death.

Sheriff J. O. Sikes is at the head of a posse which is endeavoring to trail the murderer with bloodhounds. Identity of the killer is a complete mystery here.

Just how an arms embargo could be employed to deal, for instance, with the warlike activity of Japan against China has not been decided and probably will come up for discussion by the League of Nations "committee of experts" on this subject.

Defeat of Bribery Article Against Adams Is Indicated

Sisk, Probers' Chairman, Tells House He Knew of No Connection Between Commissioner and Alleged Briber.

Indications that the house would be without evidence to sustain one of the five articles of impeachment filed against Commissioner of Agriculture G. C. Adams came early Tuesday night when Senator J. T. Sisk, appearing before that body, testified that he knew of no connection between the person he said attempted to bribe him and the commissioner.

The attempted bribery and intimidation of Senator Sisk provided the fifth of the five articles which the house spent all day studying Tuesday.

Friends of the commissioner packed the gallery and when testimony was being given, which ended with the commissioner's case, cheered loudly. They were removed by Speaker E. D. Rivers. The speaker cleared the galleries and the articles for a vote. Several times they could not applaud regardless of the turn of events.

The fifth article also was weakened considerably when Representative Paul Lindsay, of DeKalb county, leader of the Adams supporters in the house, read a sworn affidavit from George E. Thornton, who, the article alleges, attempted to bribe Sisk, in which Thornton denied ever offering Sisk anything in an effort to sway his vote in the committee of which he was chairman. Senator Sisk headed the joint house and senate committee which has been investigating alleged job selling in the department of agriculture for more than a month.

The house adjourned shortly before midnight Tuesday night after hearing the reading of most of the transcript of testimony in the Adams case, and this morning will complete the reading of the evidence after which further action will be taken.

The senator and other witnesses appeared to give testimony to the house which was not taken before the committee, the house having voted to hear all the testimony before taking up the articles for a vote.

While appearing before the house, Senator Sisk revealed that the much discussed check of J. P. Yarbrough, which was presented to the committee under the president of the Piedmont hotel several months ago. At the hearing Yarbrough testified that the check was retrieved from his bank by some one who forged his name to a card the bank

U. S. in Forefront as Major Powers Plan Con- certed Action.

By F. G. VOSBURGH.
WASHINGTON, March 14.—(P)—The great nations of the world with the United States in the forefront were moving tonight toward concerted action to put teeth into the pact of Paris by agreeing to deny the implements of war to nations violating its solemn pledge against the use of force in settling international disputes.

This broad and significant plan, with its direct bearing upon the peace of the world, was disclosed as the Roosevelt administration determined to ask the present session of congress to grant the president authority to forbid the shipment of arms or munitions to any nation on the globe.

At the same time, it was learned that Great Britain, France and other influential members of the family of nations, especially to nations on government on its attitude toward using governmental control of the shipment of arms as a means of enforcing the pact of Paris.

The American diplomatic circles felt tonight that one of the definite accomplishments to be salvaged from the fading disarmament conference may be an agreement upon control of the arms abroad by direct action of governments.

Just how an arms embargo could be employed to deal, for instance, with the warlike activity of Japan against China has not been decided and probably will come up for discussion by the League of Nations "committee of experts" on this subject.

Great Britain only yesterday withdrew an arms embargo it had declared against both China and Japan, apparently because other nations had failed to join and because of British public opinion that it failed of its purpose by hampering the Chinese

Constitution's Cooking School Is Given Enthusiastic Reception

Off to a flying start, The Constitution's cooking school began Tuesday morning when Mrs. Sinclair Jacobs, president of the Atlanta League of Women Voters, hostess of the day, introduced Miss Claire Andree and Miss Madeline Day to an enthusiastic audience of Atlanta home-makers.

Mrs. Jacobs complimented The Constitution on securing such an authority as Miss Andree, and paid tribute to The Constitution as a newspaper which constantly seeks to do something worthwhile.

For 15 minutes prior to the opening of the school a style and fashion show of cotton dresses was given by J. P. Allen. The audience viewed with interest and pleasure the new styles for spring, and when the prices of the garments were mentioned applauded loudly.

A capacity crowd was in attend-

ADMINISTRATION PLANS TO REOPEN ADDITIONAL BANKS

Return of Hoarded Gold Brings End to "Era of Fear;" Woodin Explains
Naming of Conservators

By FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(P)—Cheered by return of gold and deposits to the reopened banks, the administration tonight declared the "era of fear" ended and proceeded with plans to extend the resumption of normal activities to all communities tomorrow.

With a vast majority of the institutions in authorized cities again on a full-time basis, Secretary Woodin renewed his assurance that immediate reopening of some banks and the appointment of conservators for them by no means meant permanent closing.

He said it simply meant with these banks that they were going to be put "in apple pie order" before they got their license to resume activities.

With the national banking structure again on a basis satisfactory to the government, President Roosevelt directed attention to those he called "dishonest" bankers, whom he blamed in part for the causes leading up to the national holiday.

Leaving a cabinet meeting at the White House Attorney-General Cummings said "we are sifting" those things. The justice department is under order from the president to watch future disclosures by the senate stock market investigating committee. Early hearings are in prospect.

The treasury also is drawing up strict regulations to apprehend hoarders. Pending formulation of these, the period was extended until Friday in which hoarders of gold and gold certificates were permitted to return these to the banks.

"In response to many inquiries as to the significance of the appointment of the conservators to banks of high repute, I wish to say that there is no deduction to be made that such banks

Senate Votes Relief For 'Quake Victims

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(P)—The senate today approved a $5,000,000 federal fund to aid quake-stricken California.

In a surprise move, Senator Johnson, republican, California, obtained consideration and approval of the measure by unanimous consent.

He and Senator McCadden, democrat, California, the author of the fund resolution, had planned to call "up tomorrow, but Johnson asked for its reconsideration just after Chairman Glass, democrat, Virginia, of the senate appropriations committee, formally reported it.

The resolution now goes to the house for study.

Frank J. Corr Named Successor to Cermak

CHICAGO, March 14.—(UP)—Frank J. Corr, middle-aged democrat, was elected temporary mayor of Chicago tonight, succeeding Anton J. Cermak, who was assassinated.

Corr received 33 votes out of 50 in the council.

The remaining 17 aldermen refused after four hours of bitter personal debate, to vote for anyone. As their night had passed, most of them expressed themselves as favoring the veteran John S. Clark for the temporary mayorship.

Corr is a newly-elected alderman from the north side.

Deposits Swamp Banks Here As Dixie Approaches Normal

A flood of new deposits and much less than anticipated withdrawals were reported by Atlanta and other Georgia banks Tuesday as licensed national and state banks located in cities having recognized clearing houses in the Atlanta Federal Reserve district reopened for unrestricted business and state banking authorities granted authority for many more state banks to reopen today.

The four leading institutions in Atlanta, the First National the Citizens & Southern National, the Fulton National and the Trust Company of Georgia, as on Monday, all reported deposits far in excess of expectations and withdrawals much less than expected.

It was learned late Tuesday that R. E. Gormley, state superintendent of banks, after having issued licenses to 10 institutions to open Monday, had authorized at least 10 other state banks to reopen today and it was expected that more would be given the needed authority before opening time this morning.

The superintendent declined to reveal the list of those reopening this morning, but stated that at the proper

Vinson, Parker Vote For Beer Measure

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Only two members of the Georgia delegation cast their lot with the administration recommendation for modification of the Volstead act by repealing the Cullen 3.2 per cent beer bill when the measure was passed by the house late today.

Seven of the Georgia congressmen voted against the bill, while Representative Charles H. Brand of Athens, who has been ill for some weeks and therefore unable to be present, accounted for the remaining member of the delegation.

Representative Carl Vinson, of Milledgeville, dean of the delegation, and Representative Homer Cling Parker, of Statesboro, were the only two voting for the bill, while Representatives Robert Ramspeck, of Decatur; E. E. Cox, of Camilla; Henry H. Cantelero, of Milledgeville; E. M. Owen, of Griffin; Malcolm C. Tarver, of Dalton; Braswell Dean, of Alma, and John S. Wood, of Canton, voted in the negative.

SENATE'S CLOSE TO FINAL BALLOT ON ECONOMY BILL

Limits Debate in Effort
To Pass Measure by This Afternoon; Several
Minor Changes Made.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(P)—After hours of debate punctuated with bitter partisan jibes, the senate adjourned tonight with passage of the administration's $500,000,000 economy bill still in the offing, but with leaders of both parties confident of a favorable final vote.

The senate quit for the night after getting into a tangle over Spanish-American War benefits.

Before quitting, an agreement was reached to limit debate to insure a vote before adjournment tomorrow. Several amendments were added during the ten hours of debate, insuring that the bill will have to go back to the house.

Chairman Harrison, of the finance committee, presented the unanimous consent request to limit debate just before the recess, thereby restricting the senate's pledge to modify the Volstead act to permit the manufacture and sale of beer.

Shortly after the measure was received in the senate, Chairman Harrison had it referred to the finance committee, and called that group into executive session tomorrow with a view to reporting it for action as soon as the president's now-pending economy proposals have been approved.

Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the democratic leader, said "We have the votes to pass it." The plan is to accept the house bill that levies a tax of $5 on a barrel of 31 gallons.

Speaker Rainey again broke custom and had his name called so he could vote for the bill. His predecessors never voted on it.

Filing Time Extended On Income Tax Returns

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(P)—The deadline for filing income tax returns was extended from March 15 to March 31 today by the internal revenue bureau acting on a treasury department decision. Those who take advantage of the rule to defer filing their return must pay interest of 6 per cent per annum on the first quarterly installment from March 15.

The usual deadline for filing returns was addressed "to collectors of internal revenue and others concerned" and said:

In accordance with the provisions of section 53 of the revenue act of 1932, an extension of time for filing income tax returns for individuals, fiduciaries, corporations, for the calendar year 1932 is hereby granted up to and including March 31, 1933, and the return when so filed shall be accompanied by at least one-fourth of the tax due on the return of such amount that the rate of 6 per cent annum for March 15, 1933."

State Revenue Commissioner Paul H. Doyl said Tuesday night the matter of extending the period for payment of state income taxes may be considered today. Informed that the bill had been granted, he said "it is all new to me and I have not thought about such a thing."

He said he did not know whether Georgia would grant an extension.

Party Lines Shattered.

Republican Members
Vote in Opposition.

By CECIL B. DICKSON.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(P)—President Roosevelt's third major proposal of the special session—the Cullen 3.2 per cent beer bill—was rushed through an enthusiastic house today to the senate where democratic leaders confidently predicted speedy approval.

Uproarious during three hours of debate, in which the minority prohibitionists hammered vainly against the administration's revenue legislation, the house overwhelmingly passed the bill, 316 to 97.

Party lines were shattered. Fifty-eight democrats and 39 republicans, including Representative Greenwood, of Indiana, democratic whip, and Snell, of New York, republican leader, voted in opposition.

Wildly supporting the measure that is expected to bring in from $125,000,000 to $150,000,000 annually in revenue, 238 democrats, 73 republicans and 5 farmers' laborites showed the measure through with applause and cheers. The last house, on December 21, passed the bill 230 to 160.

Action came within less than 30 hours after President Roosevelt yesterday sent an unexpected message to congress asking for immediate passage for revenue purposes and to fulfill the party's pledge to modify the Volstead act to permit the manufacture and sale of beer.

Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the democratic leader, said "We have the votes to pass it." The plan is to accept the house bill that levies a tax of $5 on a barrel of 31 gallons.

Big Temperature Drop Seen for This Morning

A 27-degree drop in temperature is expected in Atlanta this morning and colder weather during the afternoon and night to be followed by another 10-degree drop by Thursday morning, according to George Minnifield, United States meteorologist, who further predicts probable showers this morning. There will be no freeze, he said.

Tuesday's temperature ranged from 63 degrees to a maximum of 75 degrees, which is the highest recorded in Atlanta this year. This morning the mercury will have dropped to 48 degrees and will hang there until this afternoon, when it will start dropping again, and by Thursday morning 38 degrees will be the low level.

7-Year-Old Georgia Pines Produce Newsprint Paper

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE.

Niles, RA. FALLS, March 14.—(AP)—White newsprint paper made from Georgia pine trees only seven years old, a revolutionary discovery in paper-making, was announced here tonight.

Newsprint is now made from 50-year-old trees, and tonight's announcement involves a possibility of far-reaching changes in the paper-making industry.

It also affords prospective cost reductions to newspapers, and opens a new avenue of approach to the economic reforestation projects sponsored by President Roosevelt.

Millions of acres of these paper-making pines fill southern forests.

The "young" paper was made last Saturday at the Savannah plant of the division of pulp and paper research of the Georgia department of forestry and geological development.

The news was announced here tonight at a meeting of the western New York section of the American Chemical Society by Dr. Charles H. Herty, former president of the American Chemical Society, and head of the Georgia research.

The most sensational fact about this new product, said Dr. Herty, "is its strength and light weight. It has a burst strength of 10 to 12 pounds a square inch, compared with only 6 to 10 pounds for the standard newsprint. It is a 30-pound paper, while the standard is 32."

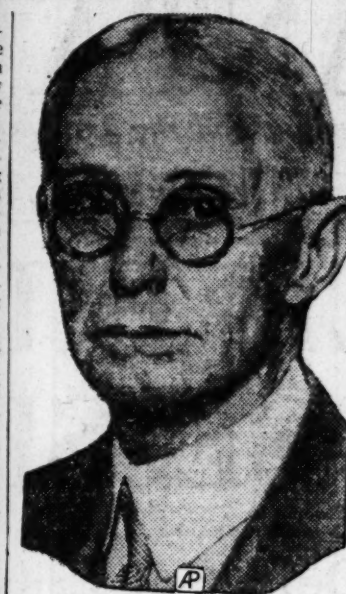

This means that newspapers, if able to buy it, would receive 62.3 per cent more sheets per ton and their mailing costs by weight would be 62.3 per cent less.

"The strength and weight tests were made by W. G. McNaughton, one of the best-known experts in the American paper trade. He is now assistant research chemist at the Savannah plant."

The paper was made from slash pine trees planted in 1926 from year-old seedlings by James Fowler, on his farm at Soperton, southeast Georgia. There was enough for an issue of a country weekly paper.

The trees all were "winnowing" cut to thin excessive growth. Fowler plans in three more years to tap the trees for turpentine and later to produce lumber. They were remarkable also, Dr. Herty said, because they grew on sandy hills where experts doubted good slash pine growth.

The seven-year period discovery follows by eight months evidence from this same Georgia plant that 50 per cent of all the south's pine varieties will make good newsprint. Until now forecasts of future developments have been an expectation.

Dr. Herty said, of 15 to 20 years' delay from planting to mill. Now comes the orchard era prospect, for apple and pear trees start to bear in five to seven years and come into commercial production in 10 to 13.

Probably equal in speedy growth to the slash pine, said Dr. Herty, is the south's loblolly. The other southern pines grow more slowly. Spruce, the big source of paper now, matures in 50 to 60 years.

"A world of reforestation and economic possibilities are suggested by this new paper," Dr. Herty said. "In the economic background is the fact that two-thirds of American newsprint now is imported."

"Spruce pulpwood costs $9 to $10 a ton, pine in the south sells for $3.50. The spruce is stored often for a year in advance, tying up capital and adding interest costs. The pine is available without more than two or three weeks' storage."

"Most of the sulphur used in paper making is hauled from Louisiana to Canada, right through the south. Much of the clay for filler for book paper in America is produced by the three Georgia counties, Washington, Bibb and Wilkinson. It is now shipped long distances. In Georgia it almost literally clings to the roots of pine that can be made into good, white sulphate paper."

FALSE ENTRY LAID TO J. W. HARRIMANBanker Arrested on War- rant Charging Three Specific Violations.

By H. ALLEN SMITH.

NEW YORK, March 14.—(UP)—Joseph W. Harriman, 66-year-old founder and chairman of the Harriman National Bank and Trust Company and long an important figure in New York's financial and social life, was placed under arrest in a sick bed late today, accused of having made, or caused to be made, false entries in the bank's records.

The falsifications, of which three are specified, were made for the purpose of deceiving national bank examiners, according to the complaint.

The Harriman bank, which stands on Fifth avenue, did not reopen for business yesterday with other federal reserve member banks in the city, but was placed in the charge of a conservator.

Arrest of the bank's chairman in his 70th street town house followed an announcement by United States Attorney George Z. Medall that the affairs of the institution were under investigation.

He said he had uncovered misuse of $1,393,000 a year ago.

The warrant on which Harriman was arrested was issued on an affidavit signed by Carl C. Francis, national bank examiner, which lists three specific entries alleged to have been falsified.

These items included $108,500 against the account of the National Exhibition Company; $110,500 against the account of Fred T. Mueller, listed as a "special account," and $10,143 against the account of Alfred Hofman, Inc. It was learned that numerous records of the bank already have been subpoenaed.

He founded the bank which bore his name in 1912. He was president until last summer, when he resigned to take over the chairmanship, while Henry E. Cooper assumed the presidency. Financiers agreed that the bank was largely a personal affair with Harriman.

Red Cross Funds Sought For 'Quake Rehabilitation

LONG BEACH, Cal., March 14.—(P)—The earthquake rehabilitation committee, through Dictator Charles S. Henderson, today made an appeal to the national Red Cross for reconstruction funds.

The action was taken when receipt of word from Washington, that legislation now before congress calls for appropriation of approximately 10 per cent of the estimated property damage, set at $50,000,000.

While the appeal for aid was being voiced, three more shocks, the 30th, 40th and 41st of a series which started with a major tremor last Friday, were felt in the southern California quake area. No major damage was reported today.

Representatives of the Red Cross, in session with Henderson and the state emergency council, offered assistance yesterday but the rehabilitation committee was reluctant to commit itself until such time as the extent of congressional action could be ascertained.

Henderson said Senator William Gibbs McAdoo told him the appeal for assistance from the Red Cross would in no way nullify the amount of money the city would obtain through any congressional act. The money, he said, would be used for the assistance of small property owners.

The local death list was increased to 55 today, with reports of two additional victims. Mrs. Dinah Onsum, 85, died in the Community hospital from internal injuries suffered when she was caught under a shower of falling debris Friday night.

Mrs. Amanda E. Herman, 83, died at her home following a heart attack physicians attributed to shock from the quake.

Business was being resumed gradually with the unrestricted opening of all banks which were tenable. Many downtown stores opened and there was a wave of small construction work on slightly damaged homes and business establishments throughout the city.

Telephone exchanges, except in a few restricted cases, were reopened and the postal authorities started making first deliveries since Friday.

Dr. G. E. McDonald, city physician, denied reports of a threat of a pneumonia epidemic as a result of exposure suffered by persons who had been sleeping in vacant lots. They were ordered back to their homes or into supervised camps in the parks.

Several private funerals were held during the day.

The local committee informed Hugh Penbertson, state petroleum conservation umpire, that there was no need of shutting down wells here inasmuch as they constituted no fire hazard.

The citizens paid little attention to the minor shocks as it went about its task of rehabilitation.

By LORENA A. HICKOK.

NEW YORK, March 14.—(P)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, wearing a simple broadcloth suit, white blouse, tailored hat and silver fox scarf she wore when she departed with her husband for Washington and the inauguration a week and a half ago, came back to New York today on her first visit "home."

"Oh, you forget—I'm quite used to commuting," she smiled when she was asked how it seemed to be back.

A crowded list of engagements, mostly private, awaited her. She came up primarily to attend the wedding of Miss Anne Ward, one of her former pupils, and Orville Rundle Gilbert tomorrow afternoon. Dr. and Mrs. William W. Wentworth, of the bride, are neighbors of the Roosevelts in East 65th street.

Mrs. Roosevelt still gets 200 to 300 letters a day, she said, but they have taken on "a decidedly more hopeful tone in the last week."

"The trend is markedly different," she said.

Mrs. Roosevelt's first engagement after her arrival was with a dentist. Tonight she entertained at dinner several of the students at the Tudor City school, where she used to teach and of which she is still vice principal.

She plans to return to Washington Thursday morning. On Friday she and the president will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary.

Ex-Councilman York Granted Full Pardon

Former Councilman Harry York has been given a full pardon and all his political rights have been fully restored by Governor Eugene Talmadge, it was learned Tuesday.

York was connected with Jack White, broker, and was jointly indicted with White in the probe of municipal affairs. York was one of the most active and progressive members of council for many years previous to the time he resigned his seat in that body. He sponsored many street widenings and improvements, included among which were Luckie and Courtland streets, Techwood drive and the completion of the West Peachtree and Spring street projects.

He was the author of the ordinance prohibiting employment agencies from accepting fees from unemployed before a position was obtained for applicants, and also of the ordinance creating a minimum wage scale for white city employees, who at that time were not making a living wage.

Talk of War Reverberates Through European Capitals

By RALPH HEINZEN.
PARIS, March 14.—(UP)—The dreaded word "war" reverberated once again today through Europe.

Hidden talk and whispering has suddenly burst into the open and the papers are universally discussing the topic as if it were an imminent possibility. Even the staid English journals are betraying agitation.

The situation came to a head with the fascist ascendancy in Germany, the activities of Nazi troops in the demilitarized zone of the Rhineland, and general fear that Germany would wreck the armistice conference, repudiate the limitations of the Versailles treaty and start rearming.

The trend of opinion in France is illustrated by the following extracts from press comment:

Le Journal: "In July, 1914, the then war minister, Messimy, warned the senate that France was indulging in chimeras of universal peace. Only last March Deputy Varnagatay warned the chamber that France has been asleep militarily since 1918. Today we are again fattening ourselves on chimeras of pacifism at a time when we are confronted by the death of the German republic, symbolized by Sunday's jingoistic manifestations in Berlin, which should open our eyes."

"Treaty Violation."

Figaro: "The Rhineland tactics of the Nazis are an open violation of the Versailles treaty. In times past France was able to depend for a base of security on the pronouncements of Geneva internationalists. While Frenchmen do not desire war, they also welcome Premier Daladier's assertion last night that the safest guarantee of peace consists of Anglo-French unity."

Le Matin (in a dispatch from Berlin): "The moment has arrived when the French must realize it is a most imprudent to ignore the underlying spirit of Germany."

Journal Des Debats: "The Nazi demonstrations on Saturday and Sunday should serve to persuade unbelievers in Europe that Germany's military effectiveness are, now at least, doubled, and they are also manufacturing ten times the heavy artillery and machine guns 'emitted by the treaty.'"

Quotidian: "Despite the seriousness of the situation across the Rhine, irresponsible talk of war is most dangerous."

Le Temps: "The Hitlerite invasion of the demilitarized Rhineland is a violation for which common sense dictates 'France and England need to act in concert to safeguard the peace of the world.'"

Alarm in France.

Alarm was caused in France by Le Quotidien's revelation that 38 per cent of the workmen employed on the French frontier, from the Moselle region were foreigners, mainly Germans and Italians, and that large percentage of Italians were employed on the Franco-Italian border defense system.

The activities of Nazi troops in the Rhineland zone, where armed forces are forbidden to Germany by the Versailles treaty, were the chief concern here.

Gendarmes patrolling the frontier at Wissembourg, in Alsace, were reinforced. Nazi patrols were active across the border, intercepting the stream of Jews fleeing to France for safety.

In the lower Palatinat Hitler organizations took over control of most towns. They were reported to be molesting Jewish business men and many entire families took refuge in Alsace, refusing to leave the protection of the French frontier posts.

LIST OF APPOINTMENTS GOES TO SENATE FRIDAY

Governor Eugene Talmadge announced Tuesday that he would send a list of appointments to the senate Friday for confirmation.

The appointments will include two members of the board of regents, two members of the board of control and a state veterans' service officer whose names have not been announced.

Confirmation of the following also will be asked: Tom Wisdom, state auditor; J. J. Mangham, purchasing agent; and D. M. Parker, B. S. Miller, J. E. Anderson, J. T. Goree and B. D. Murphy, assistant attorneys-general.

FATHER OF ATLANTA IS KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Lucius E. Wooten, 72, Memphis building contractor and father of John Henson, of Atlanta, was killed Tuesday morning in an automobile accident near Turrell, Ark., while hurrying to the bedside of a son, Lucius E. Wooten Jr., of St. Louis, Mo., whom he thought dying.

Another daughter, Mrs. Lillian Bell, and her husband, Carroll S. Bell, of Memphis, were also injured when their automobile overturned on the highway. A short while after Mr. Wooten's death, word from St. Louis said the son had passed the crisis and would recover. Besides the two daughters and son, Mr. Wooten is survived by his wife.

Joint Summer School.

Atlanta's six negro colleges will affiliate for summer-school work at the opening of the Atlanta University summer school, on June 10, it has been announced by Dr. John Hope, president of the university. Morehouse College, Spelman College, Atlanta School of Social Work, Morris Brown College, Clark University and Mon Theological Seminary will unite in offering summer school work in connection with Atlanta University.

YOUTH ARRESTED HERE IN ATTACK ON COUPLE

Charged with severely beating Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Grant, of 2235 Oakview road, in retaliation for evidence given in a recent trial, C. E. McIntyre, 19, of 156 Rawley street, was held in the city jail Tuesday night pending an investigation into a mysterious attack upon the couple.

Grant told policemen that when he answered the door bell early Tuesday he was clubbed to the floor. Several men beat him severely, he said, and then invaded the home and beat Mrs. Grant, who was ill. He said he recognized McIntyre and believed the attack was the result of evidence he gave against two young women charged with picking pockets.

Admits Starting Fire To Obtain Employment

KANSAS CITY, March 14.—(AP) Thomas J. Higgins, chief of detectives, said today that Maurice G. Marshall, 21, had confessed he started the fire which killed two firemen, injured 10 others and destroyed the eight-story frame unit of the Kansas-Missouri grain elevator here February 18, 1932.

Marshall was quoted as saying he fired the place about 2 o'clock in the morning by tossing a lighted cigarette into a pile of refuse. Higgins said Marshall explained he wanted to burn the unit to give himself and other men who had been laid off employment in rebuilding it.

Paper Sack' Bandit Gets $200 at Store

Covering the manager and two clerks with a revolver, a white-unmasked bandit wearing a paper sack for a hat robbed the cash register of the Jacobs' pharmacy at 240 Mitchell of $200 Tuesday night. The bandit escaped.

J. J. Katenbrink, manager, and J. L. Lloyd and O. Q. Baldwin, clerks, were in the store, which is on the corner of Spring street. The robber, described as being about 30 years of age, six feet tall and weighing about 190 pounds, entered and held the men at bay while he rifled the till.

BULLET WOUND IN HEAD IS FATAL TO ATLANTIAN

C. M. Riley, 45, of 114 Baker street, N. W., died at Grady hospital late Tuesday afternoon from effects of a pistol bullet which police believe he fired into his head as he stood in the kitchen of his residence. There were no eye-witnesses and a coroner's jury will be held sometime today at the funeral home of H. M. Patterson & Son, where the body was taken.

Mr. Riley and two children were standing on the porch of the residence about 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon when the pistol shot was heard. J. A. Fox, of 115 Baker street, N. W., a neighbor, who was passing the house, entered the kitchen with them and found Riley unconscious on the floor with a bullet hole in his head and the pistol a short distance away. Mrs. Riley said she could advance no motive for suicide.

Surviving are his wife; a daughter, Miss Annie Mae Riley; two sons, Grant and Ray Riley; and three brothers, Will Caldwell and Mrs. Clarence Williams, of Atlanta, and three brothers, G. W. Riley, of Atlanta; J. R. Riley, of Hampton, and M. A. Riley, of Rome. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

TALMADGE WILL GET NOVEL BID TO RODEO

Governor Talmadge will be invited in a novel way to attend the Wild West rodeo to be presented all next week at Lakewood Park under the auspices of Post No. 1 of the American Legion. Miss Alice Sisty, champion cowgirl, will present the invitation to the governor by riding her horse up to the executive mansion on The Prado and greeting Mr. Talmadge.

Word was received at rodeo headquarters Tuesday that a Mr. Wolf, trailing from Joplin, Mo., will bring an "outlaw horse" to the event for the cowboys to ride. It was said that at a recent circus appearance here the "outlaw horse" threw all the riders, and the Wild West riders are eager to get a chance at this equally wild animal, according to Milt Hinkle, the producer.

FUTURE IS FORECAST IN COMMODITY RISE

One of the most significant reactions to the banking crisis and recent economic developments has been the sudden switch of sentiment to the commodity markets thus completing a cycle that started more than a decade ago. This statement has been made by Fenner, Beane & Ungereiter, one of the country's well-known commodities commission firms.

"By means of the futures exchanges of the country, it is possible," continues the statement, "by the purchase of human necessities, to establish a 'hedge' against an increase in the cost of living and, at the same time, to secure an investment which can reasonably be expected to show material enhancement from recent low price levels."

AUTEN NARCOTIC CASE TO REACH JURY TODAY

The case of Dr. Will J. Auten, former county physician, charged with violation of the Harrison narcotic law, is expected to be placed in the hands of the jury in federal court today. The case neared the jury stage after Dr. Auten had testified in his own behalf Tuesday. The government alleges that the defendant sold narcotics to a federal undercover agent and that marked money paid for the drugs was found on him when arrested.

In his statement to the jury the defendant said he had administered small legal quantities of narcotics to Frank Menz, the undercover agent, when the latter said he was an addict. He said he could not account for the possession of the marked money. Dr. Auten is expected to conclude his statement at the resumption of the trial today.

Davis To Get Lawyer

Judge E. E. Pomeroy Tuesday afternoon announced he will appoint a lawyer to defend Rader Davis, negro, charged with the murder of Mrs. Sam Henderson and Hamp McGee. The court said this action after Davis said he had no lawyer. Emmett Gibson, negro, indicted with Davis, informed the court he has engaged counsel. Their trials begin March 27.

What's This? Wrestler Started San Francisco Earthquake!

Mr. Henry Weber was standing around his hotel lobby waiting for his wrestlers to check in for his night's show. He had just had a wire from some of his friends in California saying they had escaped the earthquake without any harm.

"This was just a silly earthquake which Los Angeles had," said Mr. Weber, who leans toward San Francisco in his estimate of the cities on the coast. "The citizens of San Francisco will laugh heartily at the Los Angeles tremors. San Francisco, which always does things and does not depend on theatrical tie-ups, had the only real earthquake. That was the one of 1906."

"Did you know that a wrestler caused the San Francisco earthquake?" continued Mr. Weber.

His listeners looked carefully around to see if the house detective was around because it appeared for a moment that Mr. Weber had slipped his moorings, so to speak.

"No, really," said Mr. Weber, "there was a wrestler on the coast who always claimed credit for starting the earthquake. I am not sure if he started it but he always claimed credit for it. I don't know if he is still out there but he was the last time I was there. And he told me about it. He was always threatening to go out and start another earthquake but then he was getting pretty old and I do not know if he really could have started another one."

"The night the earthquake happened this wrestler was engaged in a match in San Francisco. His opponent kept gouging him in the eyes. Naturally this made the fellow very angry indeed and he warned his opponent that if he gouged his eyes again he would murder him."

"The fellow promptly gouged his eyes. Whereupon this wrestler leaped in and grabbed his foe. He yanked him away up over his head and he crashed him to the mat as hard as he could."

"And at that very moment the San Francisco earthquake happened. The lights went out. The walls shook and part of the ceiling fell in."

"I always doubted that this fellow caused the earthquake but then there was something to his story. The earthquake did not occur until this wrestler banged this fellow down on the mat. I think maybe I better warn my wrestlers here. We do not want any earthquakes in Atlanta."

"But," said one of his listeners, "I always thought the San Francisco earthquake happened about dawn."

"This was in the days before they had the two-hour limit rule," said Henry Weber. "The matches ran on and on until dawn."

BABE RUTH TO BE TRADED?

Confidential notices from Florida have it that Colonel Jake Ruppert is seriously considering trading Babe Ruth back to the Red Sox, from which club he was purchased by the colonel and by Colonel Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston, now a director of the Crackers.

The Boston Red Sox are in new hands. Mr. Thomas Austin Yawkey, who has funds to invest in the baseball business, would like to buy or trade for the Babe. Mr. Yawkey is very, very determined to rid his club of the environment of past years and make it a real ball club.

It is thought that Colonel Ruppert will weaken. He may weaken for an advance to $55,000. (The Babe was getting $75,000 last season.) But he will not go past that. If the Babe refuses the $55,000 compromise as he has the $50,000 offer he is sure to go to the Red Sox.

The colonel, however, is more than likely to weaken. Beer is coming back. And the colonel has the largest brewery in New York. The prospect of beer in his park and Ruth in the outfield would be a combination worth many times more than $50,000.

There are some who say that the colonel thinks 3.2 per cent beer is not beer. If so he may trade the Babe anyhow. It all depends on the percentage.

The trade would be a shock but it may come nevertheless.

PLAYERS WITH "IT."

Babe Ruth, who has more baseball "it" than anyone else, has been worth much to the game. Fortunate is the team which can get a player with baseball "it."

They are always good copy for the newspapers. And good newspaper copy is very good for the baseball game. There are many good players who lack the imagination and the personality to make themselves good gate attractions.

Nelson (Chicken) Hawks, who was with Nashville for some years, was a good gate attraction. He was always uttering remarks which went well with the public.

"I wish I had a million dollars," said Chicken Hawks one day, just after he had been struck out by a left-hander. "I would buy every left-hander in baseball and break his arm."

This seemed to please the public, even though it was a bit inhuman. A great many people came to the games and asked to be shown the fellow who wanted to break all the left-handers' arms.

When he had a bad day at the park he would go home and change all his furniture in his flat. There were more stories written about Nelson Hawks than any player on the team. There have been more stories written about Babe Ruth, Art Shires and fellows with baseball "it" than anyone else. That makes them more valuable at the gate. It has been my contention it makes them worth more money than the fellow who is just a good ball player.

TAG IS MOST DANGEROUS SPORT.

The report of a prominent insurance company, recently issued, shows that "touch football," a form of tag, is much more dangerous than football itself.

This proves nothing new, of course, as all activity is dangerous. That which is supervised is less dangerous. Supervised sport is the least dangerous of all.

The most dangerous departure of all is high school boxing. It is doubtful if this should be permitted even when supervised. If it is permitted the gloves should be extremely heavy ones—even in the fights. Wrestling is the ideal ring sport for high school and college boys.

Be sure your boy has the supervision of a trained coach and physical examination by competent physicians.

A PITCHER'S PARADISE.

Reports of the Goldsmith baseball, which the Southern Association is to use this year, replacing the Carr ball, have it that the ball is not only de-rabitized but that it also has raised seams.

If this be true it means that the veteran pitchers will be able to pitch great baseball this season. The Carr ball, which one writer called the Carr-tridge ball, was wont to go skipping past the infielders and outfielders before they could get to it.

The Southern may develop into a pitcher's paradise.

$308,531.56 PAID FLORIDA STATE BY HORSE RACES

Forty-Five Day Meet Totals $8,038,643; State Greatly Helped.

MIAMI, Fla., March 14.—(AP)—Pari-mutuel wagering at Hialeah Park race track during its 45-day session which ended last Saturday totaled $8,038,643, figures announced today showed.

On this huge total, the state of Florida collected $241,152.29 in horsemutual taxes for distribution equally among the 67 counties.

In addition, the state also was paid $20,758.27 taxes on admissions and $16,614 occupational licenses for persons employed at the track, making the total from this one track $308,531.56.

Attendance during the 45-day meeting exceeded last year's total by more than a hundred thousand.

The turnstiles clicked 196,353 times as against 108,879 during the 30-day meeting a year ago.

Last year's pari-mutuel wagering totaled $6,242,085 and the state's tax on wagering, admissions and occupational licenses was $269,260.

The state racing law, under which pari-mutuel wagering is legalized, was passed by the legislature in 1933 over the veto of Governor Doyle E. Carlton. It provides a tax of 3 per cent on the amount wagered, and 15 per cent upon all admissions, including free passes.

Money collected by the state for race tracks is distributed equally among the counties, and they may make whatever use of it they desire. In many counties the fund was turned into county school operations last winter.

Hialeah Park, owned by the Miami Jockey Club, and the Tropical Park, owned by the Gables Racing Association, also of Miami, were the only horse racing tracks operated in the state this year.

The pari-mutuel, admissions and occupational licenses tax also extends to dog race tracks, of which seven were operated this winter.

Racing is limited to four months, December 1 to April 1.

Garibaldi Wins Bout on Foul

Gino Garibaldi was awarded a referee's decision over Whitey Hewitt, the rough young man, at the auditorium last night in the feature event of an all-star wrestling card.

He was even at one each when the end came.

Hewitt was the leader in fouls by a wide margin. His clinch was an attack on the referee and he was very properly disqualified. The clinch came after more than an hour of the most furious wrestling seen in months.

It was a match as advertised—a thriller from start to finish. Hewitt twice managed to hang Garibaldi's head between the twisted ropes and yank on his feet. The ring ropes are heavy and pulled taut. The effect of such a situation is to choke the victim rather viciously.

Another time Hewitt entertained the crowd by chewing Garibaldi's ear. It no doubt appeared to be a choice bit of cauliflower and Hewitt, a strict vegetarian, went to work.

Garibaldi appeared the better wrestler but when it came to tricks of the trade, Hewitt went in front. Once he fooled the perspiring Italian by using his (the Italian's) head when he, Hewitt, was about pinned.

Garibaldi thought it the referee's part and released his hold.

The first fall went to Garibaldi in 42 minutes. He won it with a body slam. The second fall was Hewitt's in eight minutes. He hung Garibaldi in the ropes and then slammed him down for the fall.

The third fall had gone 10 minutes when Hewitt entirely lost his head and was disqualified. It was a berserk, stone-age bout while it lasted.

The entire card was a credit to one. In the semi-windup, Paul Jones, the Texas heavyweight, went one hour to a draw with Chief Tom Marvin, the Osage Indian. Both wrestlers were active all the way.

Marvin was outscored by his cleverly avoided Jones' feared hook scissor.

The preliminary Tod Radcliffe, Tech high, defeated Red Fox, of Oglethorpe.

Another card was announced for next week by Matchmaker Henry Weber.

Action Features Boys' High Card

The feature fight on the Boys' High boxing and wrestling card last night at the Henry Grady auditorium, between Fitzsimmons and Johnson was stopped in the first round when Johnson had received cuts about the head and body. In the other boxing matches Nat Klausman won a close decision over Croswell Smith, and Rudy Adkins beat Jack Letts.

The wrestling matches proved interesting. Shaw and Rood grappled to a draw. Appleby and Deacon put on the best match, also a draw. Jimmy Brooks won over Charles Gatchell and Otis Maffett fought to a draw. Dick Jones won over James Pullman.

GOTHAM BOARD OKAYS SHARKEY-CARNERA FIGHT

Schmeling-Baer Go Also Approved for New York Rings.

Dempsey Decides On New York Bout

NEW YORK, March 14.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey today announced that he had definitely decided to stage the Max Schmeling-Max Baer heavyweight fight in New York city the first week in June.

Dempsey made the announcement while attending the regular Tuesday meeting of the New York state athletic commission.

The bout will be staged either at Yankee Stadium or the Polo Grounds under authority given Tim Mara, who holds the lease for boxing on both parks, by the athletic commission a week ago.

By Alan Gould, Associated Press Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, March 14.—(AP)—Although their controversy over dates has yet to be satisfactorily settled, the decision of promoters to hold the Schmeling-Baer and Carnera-Sharkey heavyweight matches in New York this June received the sanction of the New York state athletic commission today.

The boxing authorities gave Jack Dempsey permission to stage the Schmeling-Baer 15-round battle on the night of Thursday, June 1, either at the Yankee stadium or the Polo Grounds, both of which are under lease to the ex-champion's business associate, Tim Mara.

The commission then reversed its previous attitude toward Carnera and approved a heavyweight championship match between the Italian giant and Jack Sharkey, under the auspices of Madison Square Garden, for any Thursday night in June except June 1.

Jimmy Johnston, Garden promoter, did not request any specific date for the Sharkey-Carnera bout, but apparently he lost the first round of the skirmish for control of the summer season. Johnston had asked the commission to give the Garden prior rights to all Thursday dates, throughout the season as has been previously done.

Although the boxing commission had before it a challenge to Carnera from Ray Impellitteri, leading rival of Primo in all-round size, it declined to table this, as well as its previous restrictive rulings, because of the championship feature of the Carnera-Sharkey match. The sanction was endorsed by William Muldoon, 27-year-old commissioner, who sponsored the previous ruling that Carnera, as a result of the fatal consequences of his fight with Ernie Schafer, should be restricted to the so-called "dread-nought class," limited to pugilists scaling 220 pounds or more.

Against a protesting Carnera to box opponents outside this class is being lifted only for the title match, explained Bert Staud, secretary. "The commission was unanimous in making this exception."

ATHENS MOURNS LIEUT. HAMILTON

ATHENS, Ga., March 14.—Lieutenant Edward Hamilton, United States army corps pilot, who was killed in a crash in Panama today, was a member of the University of Georgia football and basketball teams during his three years at the university.

Lieutenant Hamilton, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton, of Athens, was a halfback on the Georgia football team, when it defeated Yale here in 1929. He played on the 1930 football team also and was being counted on strongly for the following year when he left the university to attend the army air school in Texas.

The army flyer was also a member of the Georgia basketball team. He played in the outfield for Coach Bill White in the spring of 1931. The same year his brother, Kenneth, now a senior at the university, broke into the Georgia lineup as a pitcher and made the All-Dixie league team.

Lieutenant Hamilton was a star athlete at Athens High school, where he was captain of the football and basketball teams and a member of the basketball team during his senior year there.

News of Lieutenant Hamilton's death greatly shocked Georgia students and Athenians. He was very popular with university students and his death caused expressions of sorrow on the part of the several hundred students who knew him when he attended the university.

Georgia football and basketball players and coaches were deeply shocked at his death. Coach Harry Mehre and Coach Bill White, both of whom coached Lieutenant Hamilton, being senior players, were also shocked. Coach Smith, Jack Roberts, Buster Mott and other former teammates expressed their sorrow.

He had earned two draws and lost a close decision to Rosenbloom in non-title bouts. He holds several decisions Continued on Second Page.

Godwin Raised Himself By Own 'Bootstraps'

Light-Heavyweight Title Challenger, Managed by Father, Learned by Experience.

By Jack Troy.

Just a plain country boy from Georgia who has traveled countless miles by automobile, from town to town, fight to fight, and ever following a fistic fortune that has pressed steadily upward, is Bob Godwin, 22-year-old youngster who will climb in the Madison Square Garden ring against Maxie Rosenbloom the night of March 24 in quest of the light-heavyweight toga of the universe.

There have been no fancy adornments in the laborious career of Bob Godwin. He has always been managed by his father, Arthur Godwin. What he has learned about boxing mainly has been derived from actual experience in the ring and from reading up on the game as written by experts. He had the late Jimmy DeForest as an instructor for a short time a summer ago.

From the time as a youngster of 15 that Godwin first drew on a pair of gloves and entered a Daytona Beach, Fla., ring for his first fight against a heavier and more experienced pugilist.

Godwin is prepared for a championship fight. He has fought in the leading fight centers of the country and made excellent showings.

A fine record Godwin has compiled over the years during which he has met the leading performers in his class, shows only two knockouts. One was at the hands of an old-time professional years ago in a Jacksonville ring and the other is credited to Joe Knight, Cairo, Ga., southpaw, whom Godwin defeated recently for the right to meet Rosenbloom in the championship of the light-heavyweight division.

Godwin's school of experience has had its tough spots in abundance for Bob Godwin, but he has kept plugging ahead to better things.

HOME-MADE GYM.

Where other good fighters of the country had elaborate gymnasiums and all the facilities for training, Bob Godwin resorted to makeshift training quarters, with a home-made heavy bag to punch and sparring partners whenever he could find anyone willing to risk having his ears pinned back by Bob's vigorous punches.

Oh, it has been no bed of roses for Godwin, but he has profited by it all in the long run. He has reached the peak, a veteran hand reaching the peak, and he has kept plugging ahead to better things.

There were reports the mighty slinger would be willing to settle for $55,000, a drop of another $5,000 from his original demand. Ruppert meanwhile stood pat on his statement that $50,000 is all he'll pay the Babe this year.

CONSTITUTION 'PIN' TOURNEY ENTRIES GROW

24 Doubles Teams Entered to Date; Starts Friday Night.

By Jack Troy.

With two days remaining before the initial ball will be sent spinning down the alley in The Constitution's first annual handicap doubles duckpin tournament, 24 teams have already signed up for the event.

In order to accommodate bowlers who desire to enter the tournament and are finding it difficult to arrange their schedules, all games may be bowled Friday night, or three games Friday and the remaining three Saturday morning, at Bick's bowling center.

REGULAR SCHEDULE.

The regular schedule calls for three games to be bowled Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock, and three games Saturday night, starting at the same hour.

Six teams entered Tuesday. They were S. M. O'Neil and A. Baltzer, Robert Winn and G. L. Bushong, Roger Bond and Floyd Boggs, Cy Jennings and Cheek, Ed Glading and John Martken, R. D. Barze and Hal Ward.

Previous entries include Walter Lawson and George McKay, John Bick and Dewey Bowen, Carl Tidwell and Andy McElroy, John Bell and L. Perryman, George Hiram Taylor and Ed Plant, Morgan Blake and L. B. Butler, Charles Bennett and Bob Hummer, George French and Cliff Dennis, John McKelvie and Whitney, Howard (Strike) Parker and Paul Etheridge Jr., T. A. Kemp and Ralph Groover, E. Carter and Anderson, S. L. Gerner and O. Hathcock, Gwaltney and Gunn, Billingsley and Rosser, D. I. Tignor and J. Brochi, W. F. Lowry and Herby Sargent, Howard Lipsius and Wilbur Zurn.

NO ENTRY FEE.

The Constitution tournament is the first of its kind in the city. There is no entry fee. You simply pay the price of games bowled.

The winning team will be awarded a suitably engraved gold medal.

No matter if you are the best bowler in the city and you have a particular friend who is next best, rules of the tournament allow you to team up. Conversely, if you are a bowler, you can join forces, or a good bowler and a novice. The handicaps take care of the odds.

MIAMI, Fla., March 14.—(AP)—Encouraged by the signing of Hack Wilson, pudgy slugger, the Brooklyn Dodgers stepped through a brisk training period in their winter quarters here today.

Wilson, who previously balked at the salary offered him, placed his name to a contract today, and will leave for the team's spring training camp in Arizona tomorrow to confer on Miami terms.

Club officials likewise declined to give definite figures, but information about the training camp will be made later.

SUSKO STARTS WITH CRACKERS IN GAME TODAY

Kleinhans, Dashiell, Susko Sign; 38 Players at Camp.

By Jimmy Jones.

MOBILE, March 14.—Joe Bonowitz, outfielder from Chattanooga, reported to Manager Charles Moore today, making 38 players in camp with only Weis absent.

Bonowitz, 350 lbs. Chattanooga's Southern league champion last year. He is expected to sign before tomorrow's game.

Manager Moore will make another cut in the squad soon as it is getting too large. He regards the club as being well set on A and B men.

With Pete Susko, the new first baseman, making his first appearance in the line-up, Atlanta's Crackers will make another sally against the Washington Senators of Joe Cronin in their stronghold at Biloxi, Miss., tomorrow.

The spring series stands at one-all, Atlanta having won Sunday after losing the first two games to the big leaguers.

Susko, purchased Monday from the Birmingham Barons, has been working out at home, hence his ability to play on such short notice. Wally Dashiell, second baseman, and Eddie Phillips, catcher, who have been in camp only two days, will be left at Mobile, as Manager Moore wants them to get good and loosened up before playing.

The business of roping the holdouts into the fold continued merrily on the afternoon when Pitcher Ted Kleinhans, the southpaw who won 29 games in the Piedmont league last summer, agreed to terms. Dashiell and Susko signed this morning, leaving only Joe Bonowitz and Art Weis of the players counted on by the club out of the fold.

ORDERED TO REPORT.

The last word is that both have been ordered to report here so that Manager Moore can get a line on the qualifications of each. It is understood that Chattanooga will be willing to take Bonowitz back if he doesn't reappear. There isn't a great deal to choose between Weis and Bonowitz and the way the two youngsters, Singlet and Susko, have been doing here doesn't seem to be room for but one Class A man in the outer garden.

President Wilbert Robinson, whose tilt with Babe Phelps, the big rookie first baseman, has been a big boon to the telegraph companies and the postal service, took another pot shot at the rookie today, saying something about him in Maryland today when he wired him, reducing the club's original salary offer from $200 to $150 a month, which was considered so high that the club has about given up on him entirely.

WORK PROGRESSES.

Meanwhile, Manager Charles Moore is being enabled to push things rapidly with his infield filled with such capable men as Rollings, Chattanooga, Dashiell and Susko. The club is enjoying marvelous weather here, making his problems now is to select six starting pitchers from the 15 now in camp and to decide on his outfield, where there are five candidates already on the scene. Singlet, McKee, Cummings, Barron, and Ryan, reporting of Phillips settled the catcher situation.

$892.82 as an employee of the department while still serving as a representative from Coffee county.

The resolution asks that Attorney General Yeomans be relieved of handling the suit and that the state treasurer be authorized to employ attorneys to handle the litigation.

Governor Talmadge said he had no comment to make on the resolution.

"It's old stuff," he declared.

Aviation Bill Passed.

Representation of the bill providing a uniform aeronautical code for Georgia was passed unanimously by the senate Tuesday afternoon. The bill, which now goes to the governor, provides for the lawfulness of flight, and applies the federal aviation regulations to the state as state laws. Violation of the law would be a misdemeanor.

The branch banking bill, introduced in the senate, was passed unanimously by that body. The bill authorizes Georgia banks to establish branches in other cities as a means of furnishing banking facilities to towns and cities which otherwise would be without banks. The bill requires the parent bank to have a capitalization of at least $500,000, and requires that consent of other banks in the county be obtained before a branch be established.

The senate passed a house bill by the DeKalb delegation requiring that permission be obtained from the DeKalb county commission for operation of dance halls, swimming pools or other places of public amusement in the county. Another DeKalb bill passed by the senate requires permission to be obtained from the commission for establishment of homes for orphans or for the aged and infirm.

The subcommittee of the senate appropriations committee completed its work on the bill late Tuesday afternoon, voting to report back to the full committee this morning a bill carrying expenditures totaling approximately $8,000,000 a year for 1934 and 1935.

Senator Walter A. Sims, chairman of the full committee, said it would take up the subcommittee report this morning.

The $8,000,000 total is more than $2,000,000 less than the total fixed by the house and amounting to a year less than the amount recommended by Governor Talmadge as director of the budget.

Tablet Bill Amended.

The house passed a senate resolution permitting the bicentennial commission to place in the capitol a tablet commemorating the 200th anniversary of the founding of Georgia. The bill passed by the DeKalb delegation incorporating DeKalb, as a move toward better fire protection for that section. The house bill by Lindsay and Eckford allowing the mayor and council of Atlanta to fix Atlanta's water rates, now fixed in the charter, and by the DeKalb representative extending DeKalb's city limits toward Avondale, were read in the senate for the first time.

The senate passed a bill providing for the right of succession as trustee or executor in the consolidation of banks. A similar bill recently passed the house and was up for consideration in the house, only to be used as a vehicle for passing the emergency bank bill vetoed by the governor.

Discount Rate Cut Passed.

The house bill reducing the rate of discount on the certificates to be issued by the highway department to the counties in the amount of $500,000 advanced for road construction from 8 to 5 per cent was passed by the senate.

The Western & Atlantic railroad committees of the house and senate filed their report on the recent inspection of the state-owned railroad property, declaring that "the committee is more than ever forcibly impressed with the fact that great harm is being done to the state property by lack of proper regulation of buses and trucks moving over highways built by the state."

The senate passed a senate bill, 31 to 5, allowing juries to recommend life imprisonment in rape convictions. A house bill passed by the senate provides for monthly instead of quarterly distribution of the gasoline tax among the counties.

Jury Opposes Fee System.

In connection with the reported plan to seek introduction in the legislature at its current session of a bill to place some Fulton county offices on a modified fee system, the current grand jury Tuesday went on record opposing the proposition.

The grand jury suggested that a law be enacted placing the salary-fixing powers in the hands of a commission to be composed of five available foremen of the grand juries.

The plan was made known in a letter from the grand jury foreman, Stratten Hard, to the Fulton county members of the general assembly.

The house bill providing for merger of the city of Macon and Bibb county was passed by the senate, and the Atlanta-Fulton county merger constitutional amendment was read for the second time. The senate passed a house bill providing for notice to be given by mail by the tax assessors when assessments are changed, and a senate bill permitting the county clerk to receive the proceeds of the redemption money to be deposited with the clerk of court as a means of foiling a tax sale racket.

Portable Office.

W. I. Nash, Kalamazoo (Mich.) dentist, takes his office to his patients. He has completed a portable dental parlor, built on a standard truck chassis, to accommodate five persons. The parlor may be used in the territory within a 30-mile radius of Kalamazoo.

Deer in Barnyard.

James Berger, returning to his home at Cochranton, Pa., after an unsuccessful deer hunting trip was informed by his children there was a "funny looking cow" in the barnyard. Berger went to the barnyard with his rifle and bagged a fine buck.

Eighty-five percent of the lemons consumed in the United States and Canada are grown in California.

EDUCATION BOARD VOTES TO OPPOSE CHAMBERS SURVEY

surveying committee. Baird said he would name the three other members at a later date.

Harrelson launched his attack on The Constitution and Chambers after the board had voted to approve the Powell motion, taking the floor on a point of personal privilege.

He began his speech by complimenting Baird on his recent split with Key over Chambers' survey and the manner "in which you handled it."

"Sore Heads" Hit.

A severe broadside then was leveled at "sore heads and a grumpy bunch of politicians, who are running Georgia, and who now want to run the school system."

The attack on The Constitution was initiated by an editorial appearing in Tuesday's issue asking for a survey of the schools.

Harrelson flayed The Constitution, saying it had controlled city, state and county politics for generations. He asserted it knows nothing of a modern educational system, but now wants to control the Atlanta board of education.

"And now this Evans Chambers," Harrelson said, "I hold in my hand a certified record of the court record of Douglas county. He was convicted, according to this record, of running a liquor still in March, 1922, and was sentenced to serve 12 months on the state farm or pay a fine of $750."

"He also was indicted here for running a disorderly house at 34 Forsyth street in 1924. That case is still on the dead docket, and has never been disposed of. If we let him make a survey of Atlanta schools, we probably would find a still set up in one of them before the survey was finished."

Chambers City Record.

"I was present Tuesday afternoon when a member of the board of education attacked the Chambers City Record Tuesday night. 'I have been in the employ of the city government for 17 years, and I wish my open record as a public servant to be known. I feel I have gained the confidence of those who are attempting to serve the best interests of the city and of Atlanta taxpayers, to be my reality.'"

Marathon dance trunks and smoking students of the school system were considered by the board, and Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of schools, asserted he would tighten down on such activities. Waits called attention to the fact that teachers, including women members of faculty, smoke and then attempt to discipline students for following the example they set. Sutton said he would look into that also.

Baird explained his position regarding the survey to the board and the letters exchanged between the mayor and Baird were read. Baird said the board had approved any survey made by competent educators and any other persons who are unbiased.

Other Action Taken.

The following action was taken on other matters considered by the board:

1. Elected Mrs. R. H. Cobb and Mrs. Fred Lavash to membership on the board of lady visitors from the first and eleventh wards, respectively.
2. Voted to ask the mayor and council to pay school teachers for February services immediately.
3. Accepted a ruling by Baird that Alderman Ed A. Gilliam, chairman of the finance committee of council, and City Comptroller B. Graham West, who for the first time in the present board's history, set as members of the board because Key vetoed the school budget, are entitled to cast ballots only in matters involving expenditure of school funds.

$60,000 Jewel Theft Reported by Woman

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 14. (AP)—Theft of jewelry she valued at $60,000 to $70,000 was reported to Miami Beach police today by Mrs. Bertha Keller, of New York.

The jewelry, Mrs. Keller said, consisted of bracelets, rings, brooches, pins, diamonds, emeralds and sapphires.

Mrs. Keller, police said they were told, was held up in her home in New York last November and robbed of $20,000 worth of jewelry.

ARMS EMBARGO MOVE LAUNCHED

rather than the Japanese with their already heavy armament supplies.

Should a general embargo on arms shipments to Japan only be declared on the ground that the League has found that nation to be the aggressor, grave complications might arise in case the Japanese navy should seize shipments consigned to China or sink the vessels carrying them as Tokyo spokesmen have indicated.

Emergency Barrier Discussed.

In the case of Japan a more drastic action expected to be taken when the League committee meets is a general refusal of the nations to buy goods from Japan. Experts believe that if Japan were unable to sell its products abroad it would have to stop fighting within a few months.

In joining the League's discussions, however, the United States was careful to stipulate that it would not be bound by any of its decisions and would not vote.

The key nations in the momentous movement toward arms embargoes to back up the pact of Paris include France, Great Britain, Belgium, Czechoslovakia and Sweden.

Without concerted action the step is of comparatively little effect, and the administration feels that so long as the president lacks the authority to declare an arms embargo, the United States will unwittingly block efforts of other powers to incorporate this potent device into the post-war machinery for peace.

As soon as the congressional slate of emergency measures has been somewhat cleared enactment of the resolution is to be asked.

DEFEAT INDICATED FOR BRIBERY CASE IN ADAMS HEARING

requires its patrons to sign when they obtain canceled checks.

It was during the appearance of William C. Miller, an employee of the department of agriculture, that Speaker Rivers cleared the galleries. Miller had testified that he offered to make a contribution to the Adams campaign fund refused to permit him to do so.

When Miller asserted that he had offered to testify before the Sisk committee but that he had not been allowed to do so "because I refused to curtsy Mr. Adams," the galleries broke into applause and they were cleared by the speaker.

Testimony Decided Upon.

The presentation of the testimony to the house was decided upon Tuesday morning after efforts had been made to delay consideration of the impeachment proceedings until later in the week, or until it was absolutely necessary that they be taken up in order that if voted the senate might have a chance to start the trial before sine adjournment at midnight Saturday.

The house decided to have its clerk, Andrew J. Kingery, read the entire $5,000 worth of testimony taken by the Sisk committee and to hear personally from those persons mentioned in the articles who did not give sworn testimony before the investigating committee.

Immediately after the convening of Tuesday's session, Representative Lindsay and Representative Shelby Myrick, of Chatham county, another Adams supporter, offered a resolution to table the entire proceedings and the motion was approved 81 to 80.

However, a few minutes later when more numbers were arrived on the floor, a motion to reconsider the tabling resolution was offered and it carried by the "arrow margin" of five votes, 86 to 81.

Then after the motions to delay consideration were voted down the clerk called back in his seats and the clerk Kingery read the entire day's testimony of the more than a score of witnesses who appeared before the committee during its many sessions.

"We have demonstrated Rinso in hundreds of home-making lectures all over the country—and not once have we failed to astonish our large audiences of women. For the action of Rinso is truly remarkable to those who have not seen it before. Personally, I am always thrilled to see the way Rinso's lively suds soak out dirt, and the way clothes come white as snow without scrubbing or boiling. We always stress the safety of Rinso—how easy it is on the clothes and on the hands. It's so economical, too. No wonder Rinso is the biggest-selling package soap in America."

Come and see for yourself why millions of women—everywhere—use no soap but Rinso for the wash, for the dishes, for all household cleaning!

Come and see why the makers of 40 famous washers—why 32,000 washing machine demonstrators—say, "Use Rinso—no other soap but Rinso!"

Cup for cup, Rinso gives twice as much suds as light-weight, puffed-up soaps—even in hardest water. And what suds! Rich, creamy, full of life, long lasting. Suds that wash white clothes whiter, colored clothes brighter—suds that are wonderfully easy on the hands.

Rinso saves lots of money on clothes, too. It soaks out dirt—saves scrubbing. Clothes last 2 or 3 times longer. It will pay you to see this thrilling demonstration—it will pay you to change to Rinso!

Practical Demonstrations and Important Discussions will be given on Rumford. Miss Jessie M. DeBoth and her lecturers are enthusiastic users of Rumford, the pure all-phosphate Baking Powder.

THERE'S nothing new about the fact of Rumford's two-to-one leavening action. The real truth is that Rumford always leavened in the perfect two-to-one proportion. This scientific aspect of Rumford's leavening power is a matter of routine acceptance and has been from the very beginning. Now-a-days, however, intelligent women are being bombarded with the "why" of this—the "wherefore" of that.

And we realize that here is a fact of unusual interest—a truth of real importance to busy housewives. So we have analyzed this basic truth and women all over the country have been quick to grasp its real significance in relation to their own busy schedules.

They turn to Rumford and find they can save time by early preparation of doughs for hot breads; they can rest easy about slamming the oven door or jarring movements while the cake is baking; their bakings are perfectly leavened and retain their freshness.

In fact Rumford's two-to-one leavening action produces perfect confidence in baking results. Listen to the interesting story of Rumford in the demonstrated lectures at the Cooking School.

FRIENDLY COUNSEL

BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

Dear Miss Chatfield: Is it possible that anybody believes the romantic stuff you handed out to the woman who wrote you about her husband's care? I am sure that she is a very good woman, but she is not a woman who would write you about her husband's care. I am sure that she is a very good woman, but she is not a woman who would write you about her husband's care.

If a woman has children naturally she loses them. If she has brought them up well they are human beings, but if she has not, they are human beings who are not human. The woman is left doubly lonely. Her sons go out into the world far away and usually they marry. That is the end of her story. Her husbands' mothers. There is not much chance of happiness from them. Nine times out of ten the daughters marry badly and she has their worries and struggles to fret over. As for the grandchildren on which you advised the poor woman to lavish love, she has no money to care for them, and she has no money to care for them, and she has no money to care for them.

A sour and bitter old person is not a pleasant sight, nor a young one either, for that matter. But stop and think, why they are bitter. That is the sad part of the story. To my way of thinking there is nothing sadder than the sweet gentle spirit of an old woman who has lived a life of love and devotion, and who is now being treated as a monster to years of patience and uncomplaining sacrifice. She is just waiting to die and doesn't take the short cut because she doesn't want to put a stain on her children's name. She hasn't forgotten the love and romance of her youth, she hasn't forgotten the love and romance of her youth, she hasn't forgotten the love and romance of her youth.

Answer: My dear woman, we get out of life what we put into it. We read into the faces we see the thoughts

CULBERTSON ON CONTRACT

BY ELY CULBERTSON.

World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst.

A Wealth of Plays

The hands at the Contract table which receive the highest praise from experts, students and casual players alike are those having a central theme, because the human mind, in considering the play of a hand at Bridge, dislikes complications and loves simplicity. It is for this reason that many hands which offer a choice in the line of play to be adopted by the Declarer or by the defending players, while complicated, are of extreme interest, as, for instance, the following hand, which was played by Mr. M. T. Bullock, of Williamsport, Pennsylvania:

South, Dealer.
Neither side vulnerable.

♠ A J 8
♦ Q 10 7 3
♣ K Q 2

♠ K 10 6 5
♥ N
♦ W
♣ E

♥ A Q J 9 4 3
♣ A 7 6 5

The bidding:
South West North East
1♥ Pass 3♥ Pass
3♥ Pass 3NT Pass
4♥ Pass 6♥ Pass

As Mr. Bullock remarks, the Slam contract was obviously an overbid. However, against the Opening of the diamond 6, which was made, it can be made and it can also be set. The different plays presented in the arrangement of the 52 cards in this deal include:

1. A lead-placing end-play.
2. A simple squeeze.
3. A double squeeze.
4. A definite exit-play.

With the Opening lead of the diamond 6, the Declarer wins the first trick with the Ace and then the Queen of Clubs in Dummy, and the heart 8 finessed and permitted to hold. To Trick 5, unquestionably the Declarer's best play, is the Jack of the diamond Queen. Now, if East refuses to ruff, South discards a spade and proceeds to strip East of spades. After Trick 10 East will hold the King-6 of hearts and the South now lays down his last trump and both East and West are squeezed. However, one of the chief points of interest about the hand is that East has a defense by means of the correct exit-play. His correct line of defense is to ruff the diamond Queen at Trick 5 and then lead the spade Queen to Trick 6.

One of the features about the game of Bridge which make it the world's most popular game. The opportunity for accurate and brilliant play is rarely confined to one side. The Contract table is a stage, and every player, whether Declarer or one of the defenders, has a chance to play his part.
